

Erica Burton, Senior Advisor (consultant), Nursing and Health Policy, International Council of Nurses

Erica Burton, RN, BScN, MPH, GCNC, (she/her) is a Registered Nurse and a Certified Global Nurse Consultant. She works to develop ICN policy on a wide range of issues including the health workforce, gender equality, NCDs, communicable disease, and climate change and works closely with a variety of stakeholders to provide guidance on nursing and global health challenges.

Erica also works in a clinical capacity, providing primary patient-centred care for individuals living and dying with HIV/AIDS in Toronto, Canada. Her past work includes occupational health with Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) during the 2014 Ebola outbreak and as a Public Health Nurse in sexual and reproductive health and safer substance use, with a focus on HIV/AIDS and Hep C case management and policy. Erica holds a Master's in Public Health from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.