

Géraldine Limborg
Director, Finance and Administration

Géraldine has more than 15 years' experience in finance and administrative functions in the not-for-profit world of International Geneva.

She started her career in one of the Big Four audit firms and then held finance positions in multinational companies. After moving to the Geneva area she built experience in finance, governance and operations management in several international organisations: WWF International, UNICEF, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and UNI Global Union.

Her expertise extends from the areas of governance and compliance to operations and financial management, including digital transformation and risk management.

She is a chartered accountant and holds master's degrees in Business Studies (ESCP Business School) and Law (Paris-Assas, Paris-Dauphine).
