

Laurent AHR
Director, Finance & Foundations

Laurent studied Finance at the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Malagnou in Geneva. He developed his professional career in the private sector, working for large multinationals, including Unilever, Energizer, and Calvin Klein, as well as in the field of energy trading companies. Laurent joined ICN in 2017 leading the Finance department, and implementing and developing a new IT accounting system and strengthening ICN's financial procedures. His responsibilities have evolved, and in addition to Finance, he now oversees both the IT and General Services departments.