

Vanessa Philippe, Administrative Assistant, Nursing & Health Policy, International Council of Nurses

Vanessa Philippe holds a Master's degree in Foreign Languages Applied to International Business from the University of Lille, specializing in languages (English, French and Spanish), as well as intercultural relations / international cooperation with a focus on the Latin American region.

Vanessa has built solid experience working in several countries within intergovernmental organisations and gone through diverse fields such as migration, environment and health.

She currently supports the ICN Nursing & Health policy team with a wide array of tasks.